Thousands of Afghan refugees are arriving at military bases across the United States, most with significant temporal needs. Many of them will be resettled in Arizona and will need substantial support as they rebuild their lives. Those who would like to support Afghan refugees might consider the following assistance:

1) Housing Leads: Housing is the greatest need for refugees. If you know of available rental housing that meets the criteria on the attached flyer, please visit www.justserve.org/azrefugeeaid to connect with Arizona's refugee resettlement agencies.

2) Volunteer and Donate: Visit www.justserve.org/azrefugeeaid to find all kinds of opportunities to help refugees from Afghanistan and other countries coming to Arizona.

3) Foster Care for Unaccompanied Refugee Minors: Catholic Charities Community Services in Phoenix expects to receive unaccompanied Afghan minors. Licensed foster parents that are interested in fostering unaccompanied refugee youth, please write to volunteerinfo@cc-az.org.

4) Donate to Deseret Industries: Through a partnership between the Church and Arizona's refugee resettlement agencies, refugees are given vouchers to shop at Deseret Industries for clothing, furniture, and household items. Donations of gently used items ensures that the racks and shelves are filled.

5) Donate to the Church's Humanitarian Fund: Latter-day Saint Charities is already helping Afghan refugees at U.S. military bases in Europe, Qatar, and the United States through donations of food, blankets, clothing, baby items, hygiene kits, and more. Donations to the Humanitarian Fund will support these efforts.
